LAC Scholarship

the CENTER

the CENTER FOR HISPANIC
MARKETING COMMUNICATION

- Available for graduate students who are citizens from Latin America and the Caribbean (including Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands)
- Recipients will be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only, and must be awarded an additional $500 scholarship to retain the status during summer terms

the CENTER FOR HISPANIC

Qualifications Checklist

- ✓ Registered graduate student in good academic standing at FSU
- ✓ Prospective graduate student who has been admitted to the University
- ✓ Full time enrollment status (12 hours per semester for graduate students, 9 hours per semester for international graduate students)
- ✓ If full-time enrollment is not possible (this is often true of the student's last semester), the Center for Global Engagement will review and approve the credit hours, which must then be approved by the academic dean and the FSU Office of the Registrar

How to obtain LACS

the CENTER FOR HISPANIC
MARKETING COMMUNICATION

- A qualified student must obtain a memo from the student's academic dean, written to the University Registrar, indicating the student is from Latin America or the Caribbean, receiving a minimum scholarship of $1,000 per academic year, and noting that the student is eligible for classification as a Florida resident for tuition purposes only
- Summer semesters are not included, but there is an opportunity to re-apply for those semesters
