

LAC SCHOLARSHIP

The Latin American Caribbean Scholarship is awarded to international students from designated Latin American and Caribbean countries that would then allow FSU to classify these recipients as residents for tuition purposes only, in accordance with section 1009.21 (10)(e) Florida Statutes. LAC Scholarship recipients must be registered students in good academic standing at The Florida State University or a prospective student who has been admitted to the University. (Full time enrollment for fall and spring semesters is 12 hours for U/G. Full time enrollment for the summer semester is defined as 9 hours U/G). Students who are enrolled as distance learning only are not eligible for this program. Students must be approved to study in the United States with an F-1 visa. Students must complete the scholarship application and submit it no later than 30 days prior to the start of term.
